WEDDED INFELICITY

THE BACHELOR GIRL DISCUSSES IT.

By HELEN ROWLAND.

The Bachelor Girl glanced up and staried to rise.

"Or perhaps," added the Mere Man, hastily removing his arm, "it's because Ifthey're thinking of their troubles and worrying about their bills and-"

"I don't believe it," declared the Bachelor Girl, sitting down again and thoughtfully digging her toe in the autumn leaves at her feet. "It isn't the troubles and worries that separate married people; it's the pleasures."

occur over Sunday?"

"Of course," acquiesced the Mere Man, cheerfully flicking a leaf with his cane "But you wouldn't deny them their little diversions and excitements, would you! You wouldn't rob them of their one rellet from the dead, dull monotony of-of that," and he nodded toward the two people on the bench opposite, yawning behind separate newspapers.

"Look!" cried the Bachelor Girl, as the couple suddenly rose. "They're going to have a-a diversion now. They're arguing about what direction to take. That's it!" she exclaimed, with sudden convic tion. "They always want to go in oppo site directions."

"And always end," agreed the Mere Man, as the woman across the way sailed off with the man following reluctantly behind her, "by both going the woman's

"Or by each going his own way," cor rected the Bachelor Girl. "Did you ever see two married people who wanted to do exactly the same thing at the same

'Oh, well," said the Mere Man toler antly, "we couldn't expect them to keep step all through life to the tune of the sighed the Bachelor Girl, "but it's a pity the wedding march gets out of

'It's a greater-pity," suggested the Mere Man, "that when they haven't any tastes in common the wedding bells don't stop them at the altar."

"That wouldn't save them," announce the Rachelor Girl, sagely shaking her head. "Having tastes in common before and a different style of carpet he has tastes in common after you're married. In the Mediterranean and-There's some sort of twist in the ceremony that turns people right around the Man thoughtfully, "A girl will enjoy following her sweetheart over the golf links her knees and elbows ache, who wouldn't touch a golf stick after she was

"And I've noticed," retorted the Bachelor Girl, "that a man will find a mad excitement in walking twenty miles a day with a woman with whom he is in love corner with her if she were his wife. Just his time and money taking her to grand -they are the happlest people in the traditions. opera during their engagement is no reashows and extravaganzas after the wedbut, as a matter of fact, men and women When they seem congenial it's merely a and-and made him or her go his way."

The Mere Man took off his hat and gazed at the Bachelor Girl in consterna-

"Do you mean to say," he exclaimed, "that if I married you, you wouldn't enjoy walking in the park with me?" The Bachelor Girl gazed dreamily off through the trees. "And that you are just pretending to like rarebits and the smell of my pipe? The Bachelor Girl looked down at her

"And that you are really bored to death when we are discussing art and the sex hemian tables d'hote and the Rubaivat and the way I part my hair, and that this minute you are actually annoyed-"

"Oh, not this minute," broke in the Bachelor Girl, "I'm not married to you-

'Humph!" grumbled the Mere Man. and yet we marry for companionship "And are always ten times more lone some afterward," finished the Bachelor

Girl with a sigh. "We marry because want to live together and immediately "But" objected the Mere Man hope-"don't two married people ever work together?

"Of course they do," retorted the Bach-As long as two young people are struggling through poverty and trouble they go hand in hand. As long as the husband is fighting to earn a dollar and the wife is working to make it go as far as possible they don't listen for the discord they get on their feet and have plenty of notice that the marriage bells are out of tune and discover that they want to go in opposite directions. The man develops a taste for poker and billiards, and the in opposite directions. The man develops a taste for poker and billiards, and the whilst and seciety. The man finds he has been dreaming all his life of spending his Man.

The Bachelor Girl started to rise.

The Bachelor Girl started to rise.

The Bachelor Girl started to rise.

"I do love to sit on a park bench and listen while you talk," finished the Mere been dreaming all his life of spending his Man. been dreaming all his life of spending his Man. summers fishing in the Adirendacks. spending hers at Newport and Bar Har-The man is delighted at the prospect of having long, quiet evenings in his ibrary with nothing to worry or bother standing in front of her. dinner parties and go to receptions. And asked, generously.

"And they never can meet on any common ground until they meet in the bury- feeling ground!" put in the Mere Man prosperity is the parting of the ways."

"Yes," agreed the Bachelor Girl, "even edging closer to the Bachelor Girl and selves separately," rejoined the Mere casually letting his arm slip across the Man, "they get in one another's way back of the park bench, "it's because and tread on one another's sensibilities they're too much like this before mar- and knock down one another's illusions. If the man smokes around the house his wife is miserable at the thought that he is rulning his health and the parlor curtains. If he goes out to his club she is eaten up with jealousy and suspicion,

> "And if the woman takes to pink teas and matinees and women's clubs," put in the Bachelor Girl hastily, "her husband considers himself a blighted and for saken being.

"And yet," murmured the Mere Man, 'we scoff at harems!" "Harems, Mr. Porter!"

harrowing domestic scenes and all the martial squabbles that are brought into the divorce court and the police cou and if he happens to marry a lady who prefers a different brand of cigarettes cide.

where it could be felled most advantageously. There the camera caught him.

"So this is the President when he talk about the hats. If it's a dinner he thinks he's a logger," remarked Sinclair "Why," remarked the Bachelor Girl, wants to discuss the oysters and the later, looking at the newspaper cut of nodding toward a bored-looking coupie, wine and she wants to discuss the deco- Roosevelt representing "The Man Bewho sat as far apart as possible on the rations and the women. Even if it's only hind the Ax." "The paper says he acbench opposite, "are they always like that—after marriage?"

"Perhaps," suggested the Mere Man, edging closer to the Bachelor Girl and when they try to amuse themcriticise the President, but if he thinks he passes for a logger that way, I'm sorry for him. Somebody ought to tell him better. "Roosevelt's all right, but he can't

ROOSEVELT'S A "TOY AX." Logger Also Objects to President's

Tree-chopping Togs,

Sinclair, for thirty years a woodsman

a Spokane dispatch to the Cleveland

Press, squinted up along the next tree doomed to his ax, calculating exactly into that," and Sinclair pointed to a fir towering 250 feet into the air.

NATION'S GREATEST DANGER. Woman's Exchange of Her Birth-

right for a Business Career. The sociologists lay the charge of race skilled in seventeen different trades, in Under the head of simplicity the reforaddition to being an orator and socio- mation includes dismissing all forms of

"You would be asionished," related Its employes were well treated. Some world? The trouble is that we always His conclusions are based upon a study had been there twenty years and had marry one another for our serious quallties, when what we should marry for is our frivilous qualities. A man should not a handful of union men-the vast maattained distinction, against 37 per cent jority were non-union-persuaded the among the second-class men, 32 per cent whole outfit to strike. As they were or the third class, 29 per cent for the going out, the superintendent asked this fourth class, and but 21 per cent of those one and that why he was striking. 'Don't who took only pass degrees. Among the know, sir, was the answer. 'I guess, per cent achieved noticeable success. It appears from these investigations that was finally lost, after three months, ollegiate standing bears a closer rela- these misguided fellows either lost their ion to success in subsequent professional jobs or had to go back at reduced wages. life than many persons believe. Perhaps "One competent strike-blocker could no such direct relationship would be have averted this calamity, because he "One competent strike-blocker could ound if the investigation were limited would not hesitate to go against a leader, American Federation of Labor. prevents the ordinary workman from and the long trailing skirts of chiffon Crichton, having secured the degree of speaking his mind. The labor leader uses | velvet. that as a club. With his education, oratory, and influence of position he can > lemand facts. "Take that longshoremen's strike. the longshoremen having an understanding with the freight handlers and teambination would have tied up all New

Too late the men learned their mistake, The catch phrase of professional strikeblockers is "Reason rather than force." Nearly all of them are or have been labor unionists. Naturally their affiliations with an agency whose object is to protect capital is kept secret. Otherwise they could accomplish nothing. Essential qualifications are a wide, liberal grasp of the industrial problem, an acquaintance with facts and figures, and the ability to con-ate with iron workers or chandelier fit-

tunities for graft, and union labor will not have to bid for public sympathy."

schemes, balking the efforts of paid agia tyro compared to some of these men

Why, the Erie Railroad had in its employ for years, at $10,000 annual salary, a man whose business was to preserve order by brass bands and a parade of thou-of his employers.

and a splendid example of his kind, says Strike-blocker Would Elimtators, duties which bring him in coninate Strike-breaker. tact with men clever as college presidents and more subtle. Sam Parks was

PERSUASION IS HIS WEAPON

Uses Common Sense to Discount Flamboyant Oratory of the Selfseeking Leader, but Does Not Scruple to Resort to Force if He Finds that It Is Justified.

The strike-blocker-have you heard of peel no bark with us unless he sheds those clothes. Just imagine him digging and novel vocation. He has pre-empted the place of the strike-breaker, whose abor more bitterly against capital.

Instead of a melodramatic figure posed strike-breakers under protection of police or militia, imagine the quiet student who suicide at the doors of the multi-millionThis chap believes that he has a mission ward to a Christmas bonus from employhave reached the limit of political chiaires, writes Anna Steese Richardson in to perform; believes that he can accomaires, writes Anna Steese Richardson in to perform; believes that he can accomplish more than arbitration committees, ion. Why do they not investigate the family conditions in the great middle and the great middle family conditions in the great middle family c "The pleasures they don't take," ex"The pleasu plained the Bachelor Girl, "the leisure house while he goes off in his own track, the great source of danger to the promulapproaches, and by conferring with both hours they don't know how to fill in, perfectly assured that they will be ready and waiting for him when he chooses to afternoons and long, dreary Sundays; the afternoons and long, dreary Sundays; the stunid evenings and mirthless holidays.

The head of a large elk has been taken of the trouble. To do this he must have the confidence of each, and to unionists, and magnificent devotion, have improved upon it. They make to the Irish nation for the model class who afternoon I summoned employed, learn the cause of the trouble. To do this he must have the confidence of each, and to unionists, and magnificent devotion, have improved upon it. They make to the Irish nation for the model class who are turning their backs on the home of themselves pretty well. Now, see then, when occasion serves, repudlate stupid evenings and mirthless holidays.

Haven't you noticed that all the most

Haven't you noticed that all the most

Haven't you noticed that all the most harrying around in search of an affinity.

> in every important industrial center of the strike will collapse." the country. The operatives number that they have already averted more than low the moment he stepped on the plata dozen big strikes. Their efforts are form, and his feet never touched the floor. Everybody wanted to hand him one, and directed by shrewd men who combine the when he had been hustled to the sidewalk abilities of a skilled detective and an the meeting voted my big iron worker intelligent labor leader. Curious enough, operators a vote of thanks. these fellows seem to have friendly relations with labor union officials, who know Farreli admitted to several other oc-strike-blocker, crisply. "I just did Jim is bearing results, twist a thousand honest workmen around his thumb. If any of them has the de-was booked for a fizzle from the start, and yet the organizer pulled out 10,000 or long, mousquetaire sleeves, which reach business-a masterpiece. But after he had his union out to a man, he didn't know what to do with them. He lacked new green called "petrol."

out laying at the same moment the To this end there is connected with the can't thrust aside every old-fashioned New York agency a night school, a library, a reference bureau, and, in short, all educational facilities whereby the strikeblocker may get on the job armed cap-aple. Information is condensed, docketed and pigeonholed for convenience, so that ters he may, in a jiffy, secure data concerning those particular crafts. In talking with Farrell one might get the idea that he and his men are champions of labor rather than capital. In incline them to favor the union worker Farrell has little faith in co-operative labor. As for the open shop he shakes his

"Unionism never was and never will be downed. In my profession I have met some capitalists who argue that the open shop must surely arrive, but the great and venal leaders. Eliminate the oppor- ought to be.

strike blocker," continued Far-AFFAIRS IN IRELAND rell, "is almost entirely concerned in unovering the practices, discovering the

By SEUMAS MACMANUS.

among the workmen. That same person Mount Charles County, Donegal, Ireland. posed dead man among his "mates" Northwich created quite a sensation. engineered a dozen strikes on the road. once, to my knowledge, being welcomed erick, one of the ablest of the Irish bishops, has written a notable article in sands. At the proper time he would step in on some pretext or other and a new Irish review entitled "The Irish step in on some pretext or other and crush the revolt, much to the admiration Educational Review." The article deals der & Stoughton, London. The introducwith the Irish University question, but in with the Irish University question, but in the course of it, the bishop expresses in The forthcoming book should consider-"Men of this sort we handle without unmistakeable terms his opinion that the gioves, if the occasion require. Give Irish parliamentary party allowed itself them a chance to orate, and the only re- to be made a tool of the liberals. He course then is brute strength. We had a very plainly suggests that they were case of this sort just preceding the last in alliance both overground and undermethods have only resulted in setting Christmas holidays, when word came one ground with the Liberals; that the Libafternoon that a brilliant and unscrupu- erals used them for their own purpose, lous agitator of national reputation would and then cast them aside. He says that on a truck or car, leading his cohort of urge a strike among the teamsters that the action of the Liberal government on evening. Sentiment in the union was the Irish University question "as a specistrongly opposed to this, as our operators men of British statecraft in the governnips a strike in the bud by cold logic, learned. Men of family were looking for- ment of Ireland, might be supposed to handle themselves pretty well. Now, see then, when occasion serves, repudlate branchy, and measure seven feet from here, boys, I said, 'this union is getting them with the ease with which they a rotten deal, and I want you to go the would brush aside a cobweb. One is in- find, the fishermen sold it for a couple limit. Get in that meeting by hook or clined to curse the fatal trustfulness of of pounds, and are now trying to recover Within the last twelve months strike-blocking concerns have been established face. Throw him out of the room, and of deceptions can ever destroy. We might have taken our time before throwcrook, and don't let this lad open his the national character, which no number it, as they have offers up to £20. "Well, sir, the programme was carried ing up our caps for the Liberals, of thousands, and it is claimed for them out to the letter. They grabbed that fel- whose political methods this country has had some experience."

The Irish crop and live stock returns for 1907 are instructive and suggestive. In the first place, the crop returns show that there was this year, as compared perfectly well what the strike-blocker is casions when force was necessary to in green crops of 39,700 acres. The indoing, a fact which was plainly illustrated block a strike, but contended that the creases were flax, a mere 4,500 acres; both secondary positions, which dwarf the to the writer recently upon entering the results justified this action, and yet the fruit, 800 acres, and (let this be particu- importance of both the Grant and the office of Thomas J. Farrell, in New York. system that seeks to abolish an invasion larly noted), pasture, 124,350 acres. Tillage, Lincoln memorials. Both sites are on low Waiting to confer with the boss strike- of nonunion labor for strike-breaking, as will be seen, is yearly decreasing in ground, without the advantage of natural blocker of the East was a walking dele- with all its attendant cruelties, relies Ireland, and pasturage is increasing. And pedestals. There is no special reason why gate who had much notoriety during the primarily on reason and education. New just as our population is decreasing, so both the Grant and Lincoln memorials Sam Parks exposure, and the man who York, as the parent agency, has drawn is the live stock increasing, and bullocks should not have important positions all emerged presently from the private con- up a formula whereby labor unions may taking the place of men. The number of their own. sulting room was the president of a huge be reorganized on more just, benencial, labor union, whose membership numbers and substantial lines. Every agency in asses by 5,000, and goats by 20,000; but the world, none can be found more contained by the country has provided its operators we had an increase of 35,000 cattle, 100,000 manding than that on Meridian Hill, "Both good friends of mine," said the with a copy, and their missionary work poultry."

"Both good friends of mine," said the light acopy, and their missionary work poultry.

there a good turn. There was a crooked delegate who would have had a good-mation are simplicity, economy, and always noted for tillage, strange to say, site being place chiefly in Uister, that was proposed always noted for tillage. There are, this sized strike under way if my operatives modernization. When a strike-blocker year, 25,000 acres of tillage less than last Hill site marks the central point of the hadn't uncovered him. He wanted the men to break a two years' contract with their employer. You know—just a trouble—maker. He had to use a little force. In a parliamen ary way. Farrell stated area under crops. Leinster has 14,700 men to break a two years' contract with their employer. You know—just a trouble-maker. He had to use a little force. In fact, he's over in the hospital now."

An operator working for a strike-blocking agency earns anywhere from $15 to ling agency earns anywhere from $15 to ling agency be according to his accomplish.

The same of the question in a parliamentary way. Farrell stated that one of his operators in New York had been responsible for a certain local establishing a headquarters which will gradually have all the accounterments of a first-class clubhouse—library, readingmentary way. Farrell stated that one of his operators in New York had been responsible for a certain local establishing a headquarters which will gradually have all the accounterments of a first-class clubhouse—library, readingmentary way. Farrell stated that one of his operators in New York had been responsible for a certain local establishing a headquarters which will gradually have all the accounterments of a first-class clubhouse—library, readingmentary way. Farrell stated that one of his operators in New York had been responsible for a certain local establishing a headquarters which will gradually have all the accounterments of a first-class clubhouse—library, readingmentary way. Farrell stated that one of his operators in New York had been responsible for a certain local establishing a headquarters which will gradually have all the accounterments of a first-class clubhouse—library, readingmentary way. Farrell stated that one of his operators in New York had been responsible for a certain local establishing a headquarters which will gradually have all the accounterments of a first-class clubhouse—library, readingmentary way. Farrell stated area under crops. Leinster has 14,700 ment dant the accounterments of the surrounding down. It is a phy that the area under crops.

It is a phy that the foot of State way in the foot of State of the surrounding hills of the Capital, now mostly cut down. It is a phy that the area under crops.

logical expert. A well-equipped agency must have a staff that supplies all sorts tape of joining. A member's signature, says the Daily Chronicle, just been grant-and other desirable open spaces, is not factory or shop the wise employer of to- of membership, and not a string of oaths erament toward the cost of his experi- the Presidents. day does not wait for the crisis. He which he can easily forget. Economy ments in connection with the design of summons the aid of an agency which provides that members shall be assessed the full-sized, monorall vehicle, which he committee is carried out (it is sure to The last publication of the British furnishes a couple of professional block-only for actual running expenses, and is building for the government. Several the foot of the Washington Monagement model have lately been perfected by Mr. eral sites. Beside that just mentioned, headquarters be located within easy reach onstration at his place at Gillingham, the Sixteenth street, just north of Columof the homes of members, which, instead little vehicle, without the slightest tend- bia road, between Fifteenth and Irving of being little better than a corner gin ency to sway, easily carried round the streets. mill, shall be a dignified club, where the miniature track in the grounds, with its many curves, a full grown man. The street and the other quite near, on Cohold entertainments, and receive men performances of the model have been ham. The question whether the motive power of the first full-sized carriage shall be steam or electricity generated by petroi streets and continuing as far south as de-

> Col. Arthur Lynch, of the Second Irish Brigade in the Transvaal, was, it will be Meridian Hill Park into botanical garremembered, condemned to be hanged a dens, with a new horticultural glass few years since, then reprieved and combuilding, something like the splendid ones. mitted to prison-and released a few at Philadelphia, Pittsburg, Chicago, months ago. Before his arrest he had New York, more worthy of the National forfeited the esteem in which Irishmen held him by an unmanful letter of apoleffect the new Paquin model suggests the ogy for espousing the cause of freedom, there is no reason why the beauty of which he wrote from France to the both the new botanical gardens and the I find that quite the latest idea in speaker of the house of commons, be- Grant memorial statue should not be street costumes is to have the skirt and fore he came over to English soil and most impressive, each lending importance coat of different materials. Some times was arrested. Since his release, he has one garment is of a plain fabric and the been studying medicine, it seems, and Fear seen the coats have been of luster cloth that Col. Lynch is another Admirable East Indian Tribe Retains Ancient the Royal College of Physicians, Lon-The full-length sleeves in severe styles don, the other day. The papers tell us prevail in the tailored coats, as I men- that he now possesses diplomas covering tioned several months ago in the Wom- the whole range of sciences. He is a civil engineer, a master of arts, a doctor of by the government. The Khasis, numphilosophy, and a doctor of medicine, bering 176,614, are completely surrounded while in a few months he will have taken a diploma in surgery. He has written a diploma in surgery. He has written ent customs. Yet they have preserved, a novel in French, which has won high it is said, one of the most perfect expraise in France. His command of Ger- amples still surviving of the matriwell over the hand. Indeed, some extend man is equally perfect; his work in his archate. as far as the knuckles. They have only own tongue, both in poetry and prose, is The mo tard is also a fashionable color, and a notoriety. The King of Portugal has expressed his intention of offering a prize at next year's Oireachtas for an Irish marching tune. King Carlos has been in- nouns predominate in the language. terested in Irish affairs by his excellency O'Neill, of Lisbon, who has for years past been a generous friend of the Irish language, and who is, we understand, the King's secretary. The particular shape which the King's interest takes is due to Dr. W. H. Gratian Flood, whom, by the way, Gaels have been congratulating on the degree, honoris causa, recently conferred upon him by the Royal University. Irish is now on the examination programme for clerkships of the four principal lines of railways in Ireland, viz: The Northern, the Midland Great Western his favorite vocation.

The Oireachtas, the great annual festi-

and the Dublin and Southeastern. identity was, says the Daily Chronicle, revealed at Norwich recently, when Michael Dolan, an Irish farm laborer, on whom an inquest was presumed to have whom an inquest was presumed to have been held a fortnight ago, appeared in the flesh hearty and well. On September

A woman may frighten a man, but a woman who 18 a body found in the River Weaver was is a fright can's scare a man into purchas identified by William Dolan, farm laborer, as that of his brother Michael, and the warned against making sheeps' eyes at Dresden. the great producers of copper to create a man was buried under that name. Will- sheperder special Correspondence to The Washington Herald, you living!" The appearance of the sup-

A collected edition of the poems of Miss Dora Sigerson (Mrs. Clement Shorter) ably enhance the deservedly high reputation of this sweet Irish singer. Dora Sigerson is the eldest of the two daughters of our veteran bard and noted physteian, Dr. George Sigerson, of Dublin, one of the best Irishmen of this, as he was also one of the best Irishmen of the last, generation. His daughter, Dora, married Clement Shorter, editor of the London illustrated weekly, The Sphere. She then made her mark as an Irish poet, and since her marriage she has

The head of a large elk has been taken

AVENUE OF THE PRESIDENTS.

Splendid Sites for the Lincoln and Grant Memorials.

Editor The Washington Herald: This is both an objection and a suggestion about the Grant statue. The Park Commission placed the Grant with last year, a decrease in the acreage statue practically under the Capitol, and under corn of 14,400 acres, and a decrease the Lincoln memorial practically under

In studying the elevated city sites of doubles that of the Capitol, the Capitol The decrease in tillage, strange to say, site being 30 feet above the level of the while the Meridian Hill site rises 202 feet. On the map the Meridian

Improvement Association hopes to call Mr. Louis Brennan, the Irish inventor Sixteenth street "Avenue of the Presidents," which, considering its length

The Grant statue, 240 feet long and 40

space on the west side of Sixteenth street at this triangle, which will be permanentjust south of this triangle on Columbia road, between Sixteenth and Fifteenth engines has yet to be decided by the sired; or the statue might be placed on the star site of the city, the Meridian Hill Park site, overlooking the city. It has been proposed to turn this little the present Botanic Gardens. Considering the southern slopes, the views, &c.

WHERE WOMAN IS MASTER.

Custom of Matriarchate.

An interesting survival of the matriarchate has been discovered in India as a result of a study of the more important tribes and castes ordered three years ago by a great population with widely differ-The mother is the head and only bond slight fullness on the shoulder and fit the sorm closely.

well known; and he has been a contributor of union in the family. In the most primtor of literary criticism to some of the litive part of the community she is the pest-known English and French periodi- only owner of real property. The father cals. Journalism, however, appears to be has no legal kinship with his children, who belong to their mother's clan. On marriage the man leaves his father and mother and cleaves to his wife, as seems val of the Gaelic League, held in Dublin to have been the custom when the book in August of each year, is a notable fes- of Genesis was written, living with her times he only visits her there. The principal duties are feminine, and a woman high priestess. The sun is feminine and the moon masculine, and feminine

SIS HOPKINS' SAYINGS.

By ROSE MELVILLE,

Many a girl meets her fate at a lawn fete. Ma says Neah called his wife an arkangel.

Pa says it takes a pushing man to enjoy following The criminal has, at least, the courage of his con-

Ma says the best time to keep your mouth shut s at an auction.

Pa says assertion is not proof, but that exertion

Pa says it is a pity that the sign in front of a saloon shouldn't Bacchus.

It is a 'ittle wonder that a "broth of a boy" should fall into the soup. should fall into the soup.

When a woman owns a well-bred goat it is little wonder that it should but her.

Ma says there would be more genius in the worldif there wasn't so many lazy men.

Ma's motto for framing: The doctor who inspires sheperdesses.

Personal—Daffodil and Eczema Mudsock, the beaumajority only hope to see labor organized in a way that will rid it of the tyranny imposed upon it by selfish, revengeful, stocks upon innocent investors, but it and was greeted with the startling explanation. The popular lack driver of Perkins' Puddle, have gone into trade. They have accepted positions are restranged to see the popular lack driver of Perkins' Puddle, have gone into trade. They have accepted positions are restranged to see the popular lack driver of Perkins' Puddle, have gone into trade. They have accepted positions are restranged to see the popular lack driver of Perkins' Puddle, have gone into trade. They have accepted positions are restranged to see the popular lack driver of Perkins' Puddle, have gone into trade. They have accepted positions are restranged to see the popular lack driver of Perkins' Puddle, have gone into trade. They have accepted positions are restranged to see the popular lack driver of Perkins' Puddle, have gone into trade. They have accepted positions are restranged to see the popular lack driver of Perkins' Puddle, have gone into trade. They have accepted positions are restranged to the popular lack driver of Perkins' Puddle, have gone into trade. They have accepted positions are restranged to the popular lack driver of Perkins' Puddle, have gone into trade. They have accepted positions are restranged to the popular lack driver of Perkins' Puddle, have gone into trade. They have accepted positions are restranged to the popular lack driver of Perkins' Puddle, have gone into trade. They have accepted popular lack driver of Perkins' Puddle, have gone into trade. They have accepted popular lack driver of Perkins' Puddle, have gone into trade. They have accepted positions are restranged to the puddle clamation, "Good God, I am glad to see as waitresses at the Bon Ton Restar domestic and intellectual and refined, but "I beg your pardon, Mr. Porter.

He gazed at her in consternation.

"And a woman should not marry a man cause he is noble and brave and capable and wholesome, but because he is fond of going to dances, or playing the nandolin; or studying the fashions-

"I should choose you, for instance, beause you love to make rarebits-

"And you should choose me becaus

"Brave and noble enough to eat your rarebits; and because I love-'Now, Mr. Porter!"-

"Oh!" the Bachelor Girl looked a little "I answered not, but tried on all the m disappointed. "Let's go," she said, coldly, Cursed, jeered, and hooted, battered, bunged an as she rose and shook out her skirts answered the Mere Man, absently.

"I only wanted to see how it would " he began. "Don't!" cried the Bachelor Girl, quickly taking his arm and starting down the path. "It's so much nicer just to be-

"Why are they always like that after marriage?" LAZY BOYS AND SUCCESS.

The Bachelor Girl broke in with a Statistics Do Not Augur Well for Future of the Dunce.

'If all the Turks did that," she gurgled. "the Mediterranean would be choked up by this time. Even a Turk is humane."

The last publication of the British furnishes a couple of professional blockby this time. Even a Turk is humane."

Eugenics laboratory, says the New York ers, who do both detective and missionnot compelled to establish a fat treasury very valuable improvements in connection. "But he knows how to choose a wife." Globe, sees some way in still further disdeclared the Mere Man. "He knows for the declared the Mere Man. "He knows how to choose a wife." Globe, sees some way in still further disdeclared the Mere Man. "He knows for the feet deep, might be placed on one delegate."

The Grant statue, 240 feet long ary work. That is to say, they keep which can be looted by a crafty leader to model have lately been perfected by the placed on one delegate. crediting that once popular notion that their employer and the agency chief in- or delegate. enough to pick out a woman who will the schoolhouse dunce and his "near formed of what is going on inside, and For modernizing it is suggested that Brennan, and on Wednesday, at a demneighbors" mentally, are more likely to meanwhile they combat the agitation "As if that were the only thing!" The make a success of life than the smart, with argument. Bachelor Girl shot a look of scorn at the hard-working students known in undergraduate parlance as grinds. It is a somewhat thankless task, that of dis-"It's the most important thing," he re- abusing the lazy boy and his parents of fearless man can do. Laboring men are torted doggedly. "Two people who can the belief that greatness can be achieved like a lot of sheep, oftentimes, blindly from other unions. It is also advised to watched with interest by the Australian cause a man will allow a girl to read amuse one another will never pall on one without working for it, but Mr. Edgar following a leader in whatever he pro- establish there a labor burean to aid and Cape governments, and several rep-Browning to him and air her opinions on lbsen before marriage is no sign that he by a rare chance two people with a mu
Schuster in the above bulletin, entitled by a rare chance two people with a mu
The Promise of Youth and the Performance of Markhood," with the single formance of Markhood," with the single to tide them over. Browning to him and air her opinions on the last the by a rare chance two people with a multiple of Youth and the Perlibsen before marriage is no sign that he by a rare chance two people with a multiple of Youth and the Perlibsen before marriage is no sign that he by a rare chance two people with a multiple of Youth and the Perlibsen before marriage is no sign that he by a rare chance two people with a multiple of Youth and the Perlibsen before marriage is no sign that he by a rare chance two people with a multiple of Youth and the Perlibsen before marriage is no sign that he by a rare chance two people with a multiple of Youth and the Perlibsen before marriage is no sign that he by a rare chance two people with a multiple of Youth and the Perlibsen before marriage is no sign that he by a rare chance two people with a multiple of Youth and the Perlibsen before marriage is no sign that he by a rare chance two people with a multiple of Youth and the Perlibsen before marriage is no sign that he by a rare chance two people with a multiple of Youth and the Perlibsen before marriage. minded passion for facts characteristic of lyn who were stampeded recently by to him and air her opinions on politics two golf enthusiasts, or two hunting or scientific huntsmen, tramples ruthlessly twenty disturbers. This was one of the afterward; and just because he will spend fishing fiends, or two bridge whist maniacs upon preconceived notions and comforting best and fairest shops in the country.

f the first-class honor men subsequently

DREAM OF THE SCRUB.

BY GRANTLAND RICE, One night a member of the Scrub eleven Dreamt that he died and straightway went t

Upon the slab he saw his body dead,
While from its prison bonds his freed soul sped
On out through space, in dizzy whirling flight,
Beyond the realms of Nothingness and Night,
Until at last the Gate blocked off his soul

That then shouldst dwell beyond the shining sun? What is thy record-prithec, pray relate Why I should not dismiss thee from this Gate?" "On earth," the Soul replied, "I was a dub— For four long years I played upon the Scrub." "And what means 'hat?" said Peter, "Te

That makes your soul look weary, worn, and sick! Day after day I battled with some guard,
Who smeared my body all around the yard—
Day after day I threw my helpless form
Reneath crass-tackle bucks, and when the storm

The man I werked against weighed two-sixteen And when I tried to block him or to check Why don't you hold him? Play low in the line

"Which way?" inquired the Mere Man, it and ling in front of her.
"Which way do you want to go?" she it was peeled from knee and nose, from elbow and from shin-

"And all for what? For glory or for fame For great renown or for an honored name? To have my picture taken—all the rage—And played up big upon some sporting page? Nay, nay, good Saint; but rather that I might Receive the self-same curses, day and night—The self-same snarl, the self-same gibe and frown, To help the first along might self-same gibe and frown,

My neck was twisted and my ribs caved in

PARIS SKIRTS ARE TIGHTER. Notes on "the Newest Things" from the Metropolis of Fashion, Paquin's newest skirt is the greatest novelty I have seen in Paris, writes Grace Margaret Gould in Woman's Home Comnanion. It is tight-fitting and very narrow, showing the outline of the form below the hips. This is in direct contrast to the plaited and gathered skirts which have been worn for several seasons. In other a self-tone stripe. In some of the practicing journalism in London. Some most beautiful costumes which I have of the London papers are now telling us sire he hasn't the nerve to get up and an's Home Companion. The three-quarter sleeve is by far the most popular are, however, some odd-looking, very

At Callot Soeurs I saw some beautiful three-quarter sleeves of velvet and slik lengthened to seven-eighths by dainty, transparent under sleeves of lace and net. Among the colors that are favored by the leading couturieres I find purple in every shade, cerise, and navy blue. Mus-tival, marching every year into greater in his mother-in-law's house.

RETRIBUTION A TRADE LAW.

Morals a Power in Finance, Even Though They Be Disregarded. From the Philadelphia Press. You can't violate a law of trade with notion about high morals in finance and escape punishment, any more than the every-day laws of conduct can be broken without fear of condemnation. And yet Mr. Harriman talked glibly about the people having lots of money them afraid? Of whom are they afraid? Are they frightened by the laws of the o enforce them, or are they shuddering and in fear of those guilty of their crea-A just and discriminating people can easily frame the answer.

Wants Copper Kings Imprisoned. From the Philadelphia Press. Perhaps it is not a prison offense for